In re: Ben Roten, Plaintiff, v. Carl Danberg, et al.
C. A. No. 08-81-JJF

To Whom It May Concern:

I am in receipt of the Order granting me forma pauperis status to proceed with my action along with the Authorization, which I have signed and enclosed as you requested.

I have noted a typographical error in the caption that appears on both the Order and Authorization. The second-listed Defendant is not Mike Deby, but Mike Deloy. I can see how such an error in reading my “l” and “o” as a “b” would be possible. My question to you is this: Does this constitute sufficient notice to have the error corrected or do you require a formal motion to be filed to remove “Mike Deby” and amend the complaint to include “Mike Deloy”? I wish to prepare the Marshall forms as soon as possible to serve on all parties and would like this error corrected before I do so. Would you please notify me as to what is the proper procedure?

I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Ben Roten
